

Relocation Reimbursement Guideline (India) (Employee Transfer Policy)

Scope : The scope of this document is applicable for Exl India entity and subsidiaries (Band A to F), Who are transferred to another location within India .

Not in scope : Employee transferred within NCR (Noida to Gurgaon or vice versa) and employee has requested for his/her transfer to another location.

I. Key requirement for expense claim.

Please note that the relocation expenses will be reimbursed only if the documentation is complete and is as per relocation reimbursement guidelines (Point II to IV) & policy document.

- All bill/receipt should be pertain to current financial year
- Business HR / Recruitment approval (Manager and above) to be enclose with claim Form

II.What all can be claimed:

1. Travel Tickets -
Only economy travel by Air (ticket and original boarding pass required), second AC railway or any other State Transport, as per Travel and Expense Policy. If employee is accompanied by his/ her dependent's (spouse and children) travel will be reimbursed as per Travel and Expense Policy guidelines.
2. Taxi Fare -
 - a. From the base location to Airport / Railway Station
 - b. From Airport / Station to the Company Guest House / other location
3. House hold goods and other related goods transportation (Movers& Packers) -
 - a. Packing: Loading and unloading of goods through a company vendor
 - b. Shipping: Through a company preferred vendor subject to a maximum of 1 truckload + 1 personal vehicle by the shortest possible road route.
 - c. Insurance: while shipping as per the insurance norms based on the estimated value of goods
 - d. In order to claim this expense, one needs to submit original Invoice as well as original List of Items being transported from the vendor. In case either of them is not submitted, it will result it insufficient documentation and the claim will not be processed.
 - e. Any additional charges (e.g. Godown Charges etc.)cannot be claimed
4. House Brokerage - One time brokerage for accommodation -
 - a. To be supported with a Lease Deed
 - b. Original Bill from the Broker with copy of broker's PAN card and Delivery Challan/ Receipt with the details of good transported (no prints out will be accepted)
 - c. An amount of up to maximum of "per month HRA component of the employee's salary” will be reimbursed towards Brokerage

5. Guest House Expenses -

Guest House facility is extended to employees who are outstation candidates for 1 week and the following expenses are covered apart from the stay:

- a. Food bill -only for the approved time period you have stayed in the guest house & will be reimbursed with limit of Rs 1000 per day. (VP and above actual)
- b. Laundry Bill - for the approved time period will be reimbursed against actual only if the stay is in a company provided guest house
- c. Local Travel- for the first week will be reimbursed on actual if the stay is in a company provided guest house and the commute is from the guest house to the office and back only, if it is not complimentary from the guest house
- d. Guest house facility is extended to Employee’s Dependents (defined as Spouse and children) and they will be allowed one week stay (only room rent plus taxes)

For all expenses enlisted a, b and c above, please ensure you collect the bills with your specific room nos. of the Guest House and submit the same while claiming for relocation (unless they are complimentary).

III. General Guidelines:

1. The reimbursement will be settled on actual production of receipts for the above expenses.
2. In case an employee leaves before completion of one year of service, the Company will recover the expenses incurred towards relocation on pro-rata basis depending on months of service completed.
3. Relocation has to be claimed one time only, so all bills must be submitted for processing in one lot. Bills submitted later without prior approval will not be processed by Finance team.
4. An employee cannot claim both “House hold goods and other related goods transportation (Movers & Packers)” and “Extra Baggage”. Only either of the expenses can be claimed as reimbursement.

IV. Limits for Reimbursement

Maximum limit of relocation reimbursement is as follows:

Bands	Entitlement (INR)
A1/ A2	25,000
B1/ B2	35,000
C1/ C2	60,000
D1/ D2	75,000
E1 & above	1,00,000

In case, the bills/ receipts/ documents do not comply with requirements specified herein, the relocation expenses will not be reimbursed to the employee.

Any exception to the process needed business VP2 approval